

Feed Ontario Virtual Member Warehouse – Terms of Use Agreement

The Member Warehouse reference tool has been created by Feed Ontario exclusively for the private use of our Direct Member Food Banks.

By logging into the Feed Ontario Virtual Warehouse, you are agreeing to our Terms Of Use Agreement outlined below.

- i. The contents herein are for your reference only and should not be used or mistaken as legal advice.
- ii. The password provided to you as a representative from a Feed Ontario Direct Member food bank is confidential and should not be shared with individuals outside of your food bank inclusive of any agencies within your network.
- iii. Contact information for Feed Ontario staff within this page is provided for your reference, should you need assistance with regular food bank operations. It should not be used for personal outreach.
- iv. Content submission is encouraged by Feed Ontario, however, it shall in no certain terms contain items of a harmful, threatening, or abusive nature.
- v. Feed Ontario reserves the right to refuse content submissions and has final say over content provided within the Warehouse for general access.
- vi. Direct Member Food Banks understand that any content submitted by them to the Warehouse will be made accessible to other Feed Ontario Members. Feed Ontario agrees to remove any content from the Warehouse should it be requested by the party who originally submitted the reference material.
- vii. Reference documents obtained from the Virtual Warehouse shall be exclusively used for internal use by your food bank and are not to be distributed for use outside your organization.
- viii. Direct Member Food Banks shall not submit documents for use on the Virtual Warehouse should they not have the right to make them available.
- ix. Direct Member Food Banks shall not submit documents that infringe on any proprietary or privacy rights of any person or entity.
- x. Submissions made to the Warehouse are done in the spirit of collaboration and Feed Ontario does not provide compensation or reimbursement for the provision of contributions
- xi. Failure to comply with the Terms of Use for this reference tool could result in your access privileges being revoked.
